Treasurer's Report

Hello Family,

I have prepared this report for Margie, our new Treasurer, because I waited until the last minute to contact her. It seemed unfair to dump unkempt books on her. The task of signing over account privileges will have been finished by next week. So, a few loose ends to tie up: three checks (1172, 1174, 1176) totaling $72 have not cleared and this is reflected in the new balance. I forgot to record $245 in donations in September and that has also been fixed. I also cleaned up a few arithmetic errors from past months. This leaves us with a beginning balance of $2404.49. December donations totaled $235, we paid $50 in rent for our meeting place, and a check for $25.90 was cut to Jess F for literature. We paid $450 to Akiko T for H&I learning day expenses and $50 to Nicole D for pancakes. These last two come out of Emergent Needs' budget. With a $920 prudent reserve and $166 for basic texts, our working balance is $1318.49.

Thank God Whom I choose to call my higher power for the goups trust in placing me in the position. What I promise you is that I am constantly seeking guidance to increase our ability to serve our primary purpose.... “Carrying the message to the addict that is still sick and suffering”. In our case this service is to Hospitals and Institutions.

You will note some changes in the way that we do business. This is to insure that we are able to carry out business in a more efficient manner as well as insuring that we leave our meetings feeling that we have accomplished a purpose for the day.

Rather than explain the changes, we'll just get right to it.

Again thank you for your trust.

In loving service

Andrea
